

Image and media competition

for young people who support someone

Image and media competition

An Image is a painting, a photograph, a collage or a drawing

Media is a picture or a video

This is a competition for young people aged between 16 and 25 who give help and support to an adult family member or friend who could not manage without this help.

The competition

We'd like you to send us an image or a video of something or someone that you feel helps you in your role supporting family and friends.

This could be anything that helps you.

It can be a painting, a photograph, a collage, a video, a drawing, or anything else as long as it's something we can look at.

How to enter

1. First please read our competition rules.

2. Either:

a. Go to: youngadultcarers.uk/image-competition, fill in the entry form and upload your image or video, or

b. Fill in the entry form on page 8 and post it to:

Nicola Brimblecombe

The images and videos

All images will be put up on our website and may be used on posters and reports.

We will put your name with your picture.

You can ask us not to put your poster on the website.

You can ask us not to use your name if you want.

If you take a picture or video of someone you must get their permission.

If you take a picture or video of someone under 16 you must also get the written permission from their parent or guardian.

We will check that permission has been given before we show the pictures or video to anyone.

The survey

We are also asking young people who support a family member or friend to complete a survey.

Please contact Nicola on:

Tel: 0207 955 6376 or

Email: n.s.brimblecombe@lse.ac.uk

and she will send you an easy read survey form.

You don't have to do the survey to enter the competition.

Research project

The survey and competition are part of a research project of the Personal Social Services Research Unit (PSSRU) at the London School of Economics & Political Science (LSE).

Competition Rules

1. The picture or video must be your own work.

2. You must be aged 16 to 25 and help an adult family member or friend.

3. Your picture or video will belong to us. We have the right to use it how we want.

We will say that you made it unless you ask us not to.

4. We will not be responsible for any damage or loss of your work.

5. We will choose the winner. The decision will be final. We can't give you your work back, sorry.

Thank you! We look forward to receiving your picture or video.
